

THE TIMES.

Clark H. Green, Editor.

TERMS—
ONE DOLLAR, IN ADVANCE.

GLASGOW, MO.,

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1890.

Look for the X.

A cross (thus X) immediately before the name, signifies that the time paid for has expired.

The negro advertised in our last, belonging to Mr. Burch, of Charleston county, was caught near Huntsville, and put in jail.

Gen. John W. Reid, of Independence, has been nominated for Congress, in the Fifth District. The democracy gave Woodson the go-by.

The wind was on a regular "high" Tuesday: hats and hoops went up and down so suddenly that a stenographer could not have reported the fluctuations.

The vote of Missouri was equally divided between Douglas and Guthrie. Ex-Gov. King was the Douglas leader, and Gen. Clark leader on the other side.

CHARITON COUNTY.—The democracy of Chariton County held a Convention last Monday, and nominated Hon. R. Moore for Representative. He represented Chariton last session, and is anti-Rail Road.

All who study their own interest will not fail, in visiting St. Louis, to call upon Ticknor, Robbins & Co., corner of Fourth street and Washington avenue, and get a suit of their fine summer goods.

The Douglas branch of the democracy is free soil, and the Yancy branch is disunion. We have no choice between them; the good of the country requires that they both be exterminated.

The body servant of Mrs. Clark, wife of Beverly L. Clark, our Minister to Guatemala, who died on the 15th of March, was stolen from her in New York, last week, as she was on her way home.

The Blooming Convention met on Monday, and no doubt nominated General Clark for re-election. We hope soon to announce the name of a gentleman who will oppose and defeat the General.

An English paper says General Dred Scott commands the American army. Scott who commands the army, though not exactly Dred Scott, is a Scott of whom the foes of America have a general dread.

The Sunday School Scholars are to have a Celebration Saturday. The exercises will commence at the Methodist Church, in the morning, and be concluded in the grove this side of the residence of Dr. Cockerill.

FIRE IN HANNIBAL.—A fire occurred in Hannibal, on the evening of the 27th, which destroyed thirteen houses. It was the largest fire that ever occurred in that city, and the loss fell on a class of persons poorly able to meet it.

FIRE.—We regret to learn that the Lexington Express office was destroyed by fire, last Sunday night. The loss was about $5,000—insurance $3,000. The fire was thought to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. Julian was about to issue a Daily. He is in St. Louis, and will soon be under way again.

It was a drawn battle between Heenan and Sayers, and adjourned fight between the Charleston office seekers—but Chamberlain is firm on the old platform, and binds himself to give more for less money than can be had at any other establishment in the country. If you want proof, try him.

About nine-tenths of the Southern old line whigs who have united with the democracy to save the Union, are hanging to Douglas' coat tail. The Southern Democracy, at Charleston, considered him no better than Seward, and denounced the Northern or Douglas Democracy, as Black Republicans. We fear many of these old whigs have mistaken pelf for patriotism.

Central College. The Board of Curators for Central College at Fayette, met on the 2d and elected Rev. W. Anderson, of St. Charles, President. He accepted the position, and will deliver his Inaugural Address on the 28th June, which will supersede the regular Annual Address on that occasion. The friends of the College and Education generally, regard the late action of the Board, and the acceptance of Mr. Anderson, as an important and permanent step forward in behalf of the cause.

Editor's Jubilee.—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company projected a grand free ride for Southern and Western Editors, which was seconded by the other roads of the country. A number of tickets were issued, and the excursion train left Wheeling last Thursday. The trip extends to Washington and Mount Vernon—and the tickets held good till the 15th of June. Several editors in this State, who were fortunate enough to receive tickets, joined the excursion. May they have a good time.

Adjournment of the Charleston Convention—No Nomination—The Great Humbug Exploded!

The regular Charleston Assembly of the so-called National Democratic Party, adjourned last Thursday, after a ten day's session, without making a nomination for the Presidency. It adjourned to meet again in Baltimore, on the 18th of June. In our last, we gave the proceedings, up to the adoption of the Douglas Platform, and the withdrawal of a portion of the Southern Delegates. After this, two days were spent in balloting. Fifty-seven ballots were had. The first ballot stood as follows:

Douglas, 1454; Guthrie, 363; Dickinson, 7; Lane, 6; Hunter, 2; Davis, 1; Toney, 2; Pierce, 1, Johnson, 1.

The States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, voted entire for Douglas. He also received half of the vote of Missouri.

Douglas gained in the succeeding ballots, until he received one hundred and fifty-two and-a-half votes. On the fifty-seventh and last ballot, the vote stood:

Douglas 1514; Guthrie 624; Hunter 16; Lane 16; Dickinson 2; Davis 1.

The vote for adjournment stood ayes 148; nays 100.

The Convention adopted a rule making two-thirds necessary to a nomination. The body cast the same number of votes of which the Electoral College is composed, viz: 303. After the Southern States withdrew, the number of votes was reduced to 249, yet the rule required the successful candidate to get two-thirds of the full convention. Douglas got a majority of the whole vote, even in the disrupted Convention, and his friends doubtless thought he was strong enough to adjourn the fight, and let the bolting States send up new delegations to Baltimore, on the 18th June.

The Seceders organized, had a split among themselves, and adjourned, as will be seen by a telegraphic account of the proceedings, in another column. They are to hold a Convention in Richmond, Virginia, on the first of June, we believe.

So, the Great National, Humbug, Plunder Democracy Party, has gone up! Its own corruptions, double-dealings and hypocrisy broke its back, and its enraged members turned upon each other, and made good all the charges that the whigs have preferred against it for years. They declared it insincere and sectional—bound together alone by the cohesive power of public plunder, and witnesses arise in their own synagogues, and declare the charges true! It was charged upon the democracy that they were sectional—that in the North they were abolitionists, and no better than the Republicans, and Mr. Bayard, of Delaware, rose in the Convention and declared he "did not regard the influence that overruled principle in the National Convention, so much as the spirit of Black Republicanism—it was a struggle for power and plunder—the corruptions and bargains of a general scramble for office."

Mr. Burrows, of Arkansas, declared, "he considered the Northern Democrats as worse than the Black Republicans. He did not care whether the Black Republicans whipped them, or they whipped the Black Republicans. Of the two he considered the Black Republicans the most open and manly foes of the South. As to Douglas, he would not support him, even if he was nominated. He considered him as great an enemy to the South as the traitor Seward was." And so we might quote from the leaders of that party to make good all the charges that have been made against the party, to show that it was, utterly unfit to govern this great Country—that it is hopelessly corrupt and hypocritical. Witness the debate on the platform question: Not a country meeting was held in this State, that did not re-affirm and re-endorse the Cincinnati Platform, yet in the Charleston Convention half the delegates from this State voted against that same Cincinnati Platform! Men who fought and won the last Presidential election on that Platform, denounced it in the Convention as a tricky device—a double-faced sham! Our whole paper would not suffice to give the evidence that democrats themselves, proclaimed to show that their party was denationalized and its platform a humbug!

We need not tell our readers that we are rejoiced that the democratic party is broken down: and we are doubly rejoiced that it broke itself down, because, when a family severs, then, and then only, do you get the truth of the troubles—get a fair view of the iniquities and foulness that was before concealed by a common pride and a common desire to fatten on ill-gotten gains. And the country will rejoice, too, and cast about for more honest and patriotic men to fill posts of honor and trust. Fortunately, the honest, conservative element of the country is now in session in Baltimore, with a view to recommend candidates for President and Vice President, to the people, whose unknown patriotism, honesty, capacity, and conservatism, will enable them safely to pilot the ship of State over the breakers of sectionalism now so painfully visible North and South.

The Southern Democratic Convention is to meet at Richmond, Virginia, on the second Monday in June—just previous to the meeting of the Northern branch of the party at Baltimore. At Charleston, Missouri was equally divided between the North and the South, yet none of her delegates bolted. A St. Louis man, who went to Charleston as an alternate, took a hand the Bolters Convention.

The Election in the House of Representatives.

[From the New York Times.]
We are often interrogated as to the result in case the choice of President should devolve upon the present House.

Fourteen States, viz: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oregon, South Carolina, Texas and Virginia would cast their votes for the Democratic nominee.

Fifteen States, viz: Connecticut, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont and Wisconsin for the Republican candidate.

Maryland Tennessee for the Opposition candidate, and the vote of Kentucky and North Carolina would be equally divided.

With Kansas admitted, the Republican candidate would have sixteen States, but not a majority. Without Kansas it would stand:

Republican candidate.....15 States.
Democratic candidate.....14 States.
Southern Opposition candidate.....2 States.
Tied.....2 States.

Total.....33 States.
Necessary to a choice.....17 States.

If no candidate has a majority of all the electoral votes then the House must, from the three highest make the election; and that, too, by a majority of all the States. If they fail to do this previous to the 14th of March, then the Vice President shall act as President. If no Vice President should have been elected by the House, then the Senate shall choose one from the two highest numbers of the list voted for.

It will be seen therefore, that, if no President or Vice President should be chosen next fall, and if the House of Representatives shall fail to elect either, the State will have the appointment of the Chief Magistrate, though it can only select from two names presented by the House.

Ex-Gov. King.

Ex-Gov. King was one of the leaders at Charleston. He is a warm Douglas man, and succeeded in carrying half the delegation for Douglas against Gen. Clark and the administration. He made a bully speech when the platforms were under discussion. It was a long speech, and some of the writers styled him the "old man eloquent," but in looking it over, we only found one decided truth in it, and that is contained in the following extract:

"The majority report had a sting of death in it. He would vote for the minority report as a substitute. All the people want is the Cincinnati platform without any tail to it. He spoke of Black Republicans as men who are as sharp as men usually get and said they would ridicule their majority platform as Jonas faced and contradictory. So far as Missouri is concerned they can carry it, even clogged with this deadly sting, as they always go blind for the democratic nominee, but he could plainly see that his border neighbors would be destroyed by its venom."

Three cheers for the blind democracy of Missouri. King knows them!

Mr. Wm. B. Astor is worth at least $25,000,000, and every cent of the income over and above expenses and charities, is immediately reinvested. Mr. A. is still a hale and hearty looking man, and will probably live to be as old as his father. He has an office where he works harder than a dry goods clerk. Six or seven gentlemen set as book-keepers, but he holds the thread of the complicated skein in his own hand. His room contains in bound volumes the records and maps of his vast estate, and he can readily turn to any piece of property and find the rent and other particulars.

AUCTION SALE OF GOODS.—The great

auction sale of goods commenced at Fayette, on Monday, and will continue from day to day, till the entire lot is closed out. Those who want bargains would do well to attend. The sales will continue through this week, and perhaps longer. Saturday, some of the most desirable lots will be offered, and as the sale is without reserve, such an opportunity may not occur again at an early date, to make purchases without reference to original cost.

CONVENTIONS.—This is a great year for National Conventions. The Charleston Convention came first, but split, and both bodies adjourned. The Union Convention is now in session, at Baltimore. The Republican convention meets at Chicago on the 16th. The Southern Seceders Democratic convention meets at Richmond, on the 11th of June, and the regular Democratic convention meets at Baltimore, on the 18th June, pursuant to adjournment.

The Baltimore convention met yesterday. Rives, Houston, Crittenden, Everett, and Bell, are prominently spoken of for the Presidency.

Rev. Mr. FULLER, the American Spurgeon, has been holding a protracted meeting in Huntsville. Some fifty persons joined the Church. He preaches in Roanoke Sunday, and will probably be in this place, next week.

KEY FOUND.—A large brass key, which the owner can have by proving same and paying for this notice.

The St. Louis dailies arrive here with great irregularity. We are satisfied they are not placed in the St. Louis Post office in time. Will they please take notice.

"THE BOLD AND MANLY."—As the detailed reports of the proceedings of the Charleston convention came along, it looks very much like our delegates made an awfully, we want say it!

St. Louis, May 7.—Hemp, $110 to $118; Wheat, $1.40 to $1.50; Flour, $5.50 to $5.75; Corn, white, 65 to 68 cents; Clear sides, 104 to 104; Dry Hides 15 to 154 cents.

Latest from Pike's Peak.

DENVER CITY, April 30.—It is reported here this morning, by the Arrapahoe Indians, that a party of whites have been murdered on Smoky Hill Fork, by the Kiowas. Thirteen dead bodies are said to have been seen. The Kiowas have sent pipes of peace to the Arrapahoes, Sioux and Cheyennes, asking them to join them against the whites. The Arrapahoes have declined, and are leaving the vicinity of the Kiowas.

Mining operation have been much impeded by recent storms in the mountains. Most of the gold region is still covered with snow. Rich diggings are reported on the Blue and Arkansas, and a large portion of the emigration passing here is bound for that region.

Seventeen emigrant trains left for the States last week, the parties having become discouraged by their poor success in prospecting and deep snows.

The democracy are having a lively time of it. Meetings are being held to back the Seceders as well as the Regulars. St. Louis moved in behalf of the Regulars, with an "enthusiastic meeting," the other night. The Congressional programme is to invite the bolters back. There is sport ahead.
